Abstract

“Abstract is an abstract concept.”

(The title should always be centred. This has not been done since it’s only an example.)

RQ and figures

Research Question: are Norway Puffin population trends affected by climate change?

The figures are presented and the code for them is run within the chunks (but is not made visible).

Figure 1.

Figure 3.

Appendix

This part is to add the appendix.
